General description of products to be purchased from the Seller

The purchaser certifies that if the tangible personal property purchased tax free is used or consumed for any purpose that would subject it to Sales or use Tax, the purchaser agrees to assume liability and report and pay the proper tax to the proper taxing authority, and hold Seller harmless for Said tax and from all expenses connected therewith. It is further agreed and understood that this form is being executed as a blanket exemption certificate and applies to and is part of all purchases of tangible personal property and services from Seller, unless otherwise specified, until this certificate is cancelled in writing or revoked by the State or local taxing authority.
